

Fourth Nordic Conference on Scholarly Communication

Openness - Trade, Tools and Transparency

21-23 April 2008, Lund, Sweden

Following up the success of the previous Nordic Conferences on Scholarly Communication, Lund University Libraries are proud to announce the Fourth Nordic Conference.

In order to discuss, present and analyse the problems and challenges that arise within scholarly communication Lund University Libraries invite scholars, publishers, vendors, editors, librarians and other interested parties to the Fourth Nordic Conference on Scholarly Communication 21 - 23 April 2008 in Lund, Sweden. The conference takes place every second year and aims to be an important contribution to the discussion and to the development within the Nordic countries.

More information about the conference programme will be available on the website.
