

Our 26 libraries in Lund, Malmö and Helsingborg offer course books and other literature, study places and often study rooms, computers and wifi. The University Library (UB) is a public research library with legal deposit copies of Swedish prints, manuscripts, archives and a range of special collections.

SEARCH FUNCTIONS www.lub.lu.se/en/search-systems-and-tools

Consult the library catalogue Lovisa to find out what literature the libraries hold and whether it is available for lending. You can check and renew your loans as well as order and request materials. LUBsearch is a platform for electronic resources such as e-books, databases, online dictionaries, reference books and articles from e-journals, often available in full text. There are also several other search systems.

STUDENT ACCOUNT www.lunduniversity.lu.se/current-students/new-students/your-student-account

As a student at Lund University, you can access the University's electronic resources and many other services with your student account, no matter where you are.

LU CARD/LIBRARY CARD <https://lovisaz.lub.lu.se/search/query?locale=en>

To get a library account, fill in the web form on the Lovisa start page. Then visit a library where your LU card will be activated for loans. If you are a distance student, you can apply via email. The card is valid at all Lund University Libraries, but there might be variations in what materials you can borrow and for how long.

INTERLIBRARY LOANS www.lub.lu.se/en/services-and-activities/interlibrary-loans

If an item is not held by a library in Lund, students and university staff can request an interlibrary loan from another library by using the form on the libraries' websites. Interlibrary loans within the Nordic countries are free of charge.

READING DIFFICULTIES? www.lub.lu.se/en/services-and-activities/reading-and-writing-support
